5 Steps to Body Marbling

#1

Pre - Dunk

This solution allows the paint to properly adhere to the skin.

With fingers opened wide, slowly go straight down, wait 5 seconds, then slowly come back up

#2

Drying station 1 of 2

. Ensure the pre dunked area of the arm is completely dry before going onto the dunking station.

#3

Dunk

Tell your artist what design and colors you want, then we'll make it for you right there.

Slowly go down into the solution, with fingers opened. Only go down to pre-dunk level. Slowly come back up and go to post dunk station

#4

Post - Dunk

The post dunk solidifies the paint.

Slowly go into the solution, small hake like jazz hands, then slowly back up

#5 Final Drying Station 2 of 2

The final drying station is what makes the skin dry and suitable for normal use again. It is very important to get as dry as possible with this so the paint lasts as long as desired
